

BALLOON HOVERCRAFT

PIRATE PROBLEMS Courtesy of Fairport Robotics

Red Raider has arrived on an island filled with treasure. As he follows his map to the red X, he overcomes many dangers with ease. He is almost to the end of his journey when he stumbles upon the final bridge he must cross. Unfortunately, the bridge has collapsed. He needs some way to make it across the cliff to the treasure, but he has no bridge to walk across. It is up to you, his most trusted matey on his crew, to build him a hovercraft! Use the few materials you brought along on your journey. Use the few materials you brought along on your journey to make your balloon hover in the air instead of launching off like a rocket!
